EVIAN, NATURAL MINERAL WATER

Evian is portrayed as a luxury and expensive bottled water. It was named in Agatha Christie's Murder on the Orient Express. It is popular among Hollywood celebrities. The brand frequently collaborates with high-fashion designers for a series of limited edition bottles.

BADOIT, A UNIQUE WATER

This major sparkling water brand is much-loved by the French. Badoit brings over two centuries of pleasure and sophistication to every meal. Originally acknowledged for its exceptional properties in the 18th Century, Badoit was recognised in 1778 by King Louis XVI's physician as having virtues that "enhance the appetite, soothe digestion and lift the spirit". Resolutely traditional, Badoit knows how to reinvent itself; its bottles are increasingly elegant, and highlight this unique product. Choosing to enjoy Badoit fine bubbles means making each meal a special occasion.
